

Marriage Ceremony

Partners

I would like to welcome everyone here today to to witness the joining together in marriage of and

I am and I am a Civil Celebrant appointed by the Registrar General for Scotland as a person authorised to solemnise civil marriages in accordance with the provisions of the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977.

Before I proceed with this civil marriage ceremony it is necessary that you should both identify yourselves by answering the following questions:-

Partner 1 - Are you

Partner 2 – Are you

We are now gathered here in order that I may solemnise your marriage in the presence of these two witnesses and in accordance with the law of Scotland and I confirm that the requirements of that law preliminary to your marriage have been satisfied.

Before you,, and you, are joined in marriage it is my duty to remind you of the binding character of the vows you are about to make. Marriage according to the law of this country is a union of two people, voluntarily entered into for life, to the exclusion of all others.

I now require that you make a declaration accepting each other in marriage.

Partner 1 and Partner 2 joining right hands and repeat after the Registrar:-

Vows (Partner 1 then Partner 2)	I solemnly and sincerely declare, that I know of no legal impediment to my marrying

Partner 1 and Partner 2 face each other joining both hands together and repeat after Registrar:-

Vows (Partner 1 then Partner 2)	I accept you in marriage, To have and to hold from this day forward, For better for worse, For richer for poorer, In sickness and in health, To love and to cherish to the exclusion of all others, For as long as we both shall live.
